

I just wanted to add my voice to the others opposing the changes currently under consideration regarding rules for ownership at the FCC. Please don't do anything that will allow major corporations to monopolize the media. They are too powerful already.